

ALEXANDRIA CITIZENS HOLD PATRIOTIC RALLY

Meeting Held to Urge Recruiting in First Virginia Regiment.

THE HERALD BUREAU, R. E. Knight & Son, 323-43 King Street.

Alexandria, Va., April 14.—The patriotic rally held tonight to arouse enthusiasm in recruiting for Company G, First Virginia Regiment, was largely attended. Speakers were Rev. E. V. Regester, pastor of the M. E. Church South; Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, Robinson Moncreur, and Capt. Conrad Johnson. F. J. Marbury, president of the board of education, presided, and the following were played by the American Indian Guard Band.

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett declared that an ignoble peace is worse than war. Every war that the United States has waged has been for the purpose of securing peace, she said.

Rev. E. V. Regester said when Lincoln called for volunteers the answer was "We are coming, Father Abraham, we are coming," and predicted that the Southland will send an answer in this crisis, "We are coming, Father Woodrow, we are coming."

Robinson Moncreur opened his address with a short prayer and talked on preparedness. He said he thought the great mass of German-Americans in this country are as loyal as any other nationality. Capt. Conrad Johnson appealed for seventy-five volunteers to complete his company and urged all unmarried men to join before conscription begins.

Representative Harrison, of Mississippi, was the principal speaker this afternoon at the flag raising at the Westminster Building of the Second Presbyterian Church. Representative Harrison said that such a crisis as we are now facing makes us better citizens and makes us appreciate our flag more.

For three years, he said, this country suffered as a result of the war, and our forbearance and patience was marveled at by all nations.

Rev. John Lee Allison, D. D., pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, who presided, made the opening address and told what the flag symbolized.

The flag was raised by Little C. Lester Scott, and patriotic airs were played by Prof. Padgett's Orchestra, with the singing of "America" by the choir of the Second Presbyterian Church, in which the audience joined, and benediction by Rev. Dr. Allison.

The members of Post F, Travelers' Protective Association, will at 8 o'clock tomorrow night attend special services in the Second Presbyterian Church, at which time a sermon will be preached by Rev. John Lee Allison, D. D., chairman of the local post. A special musical program has been arranged, ending with the singing of "America," and benediction.

Mrs. Sarah Virginia Mandley died this morning at the home of her son-in-law, Norval Ford, Del Ray, Alexandria County. She is survived by several children. Her funeral will take place at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, Rev. E. V. Regester, pastor of the M. E. Church South, officiating. Members of Mount Vernon Council, Daughters of America, will attend, and will meet in the chapel in Bethel Cemetery at 2:30 o'clock.

Col. Robert N. Other events the same week will be the conventions of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, the Daughters of the Confederacy and the Confederate Southern Memorial Association, besides regimental reunions, and the social functions which always are elaborate features of the reunions.

The citizens of Washington are responding liberally to the call of Mr. H. F. Cary, chairman of the finance committee, for funds to entertain and care for the guests from the South.

Amazing Power of Bon-Opto To Make Weak Eyes Strong

Doctor Says It Strengthens Eyesight 50 Per Cent in One Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Victims of eye strain and other eye weaknesses and those who wear glasses will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope and help for them. Many whose eyes were ailing say they have had their eyes restored by this remarkable prescription and many whose eyes were glasses say they have thrown them away. One man says, "I was using it; I was almost blind. Now I can see as well as I ever did. I can read without my glasses, and my eyes do not hurt any more. At night they would pain dreadfully. Now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me."

A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seemed clear. I can read even fine print without glasses." Another who used it says: "I was bothered with eye strain caused by overworked, tired eyes, with a induced severe headaches. I have worn glasses for several years, both for a dance and for work, and without them I could not read my own name on an envelope or the typewriting on the machine before me. I can do both now and have discarded my long distance glasses altogether. I can count the fluttering leaves on the trees across the street now, which for several years have looked like a dim green blur to me. I cannot express my joy at what it has done for me."

It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a week's time and multitudes more will be

COLLEGE OF MUSIC GIVES LAST CONCERT

Washington Organization Plays and Sings for Red Cross Benefit.

Students of the Washington College of Music presented an interesting program of vocal and instrumental music at Masonic Auditorium yesterday afternoon at the last of a series of public concerts for the season.

The opening number, Symphony No. 2, by Haydn, was admirably played by the orchestra. Miss Leel Tench Rose sang "What's in the Air?" (Eden) and "Little Blue Pigeon." Miss Doris DeGroot played "Adoration" (Borovick), and "Serenade" in A by Drieda. Miss Kathryn Bouck played the Concerto No. 4, Scherzo, by Liszt. A duet for cello, Mitchell Bliss, and flute, E. W. Menzel, was a very pleasing number. Mrs. Ethel Holtschlaw Gowler sang "O in My Dreams" (Liszt), and "Robin on the Apple Tree" (Hewitt).

A silver offering was taken for the Washington chapter of the Red Cross. A quartet of violins played "Carnival of Venice," by Dandini, the Misses Kathleen Long, Estella Thomas, Catherine Bowles and Regina Vandever rendered it. Miss Florence Reynolds played two Chopin numbers. This was followed by the First Concerto for violin by De Beriot, by Henry Christian. Miss Alma Thomas sang "I Came between the Glad Green Hills" (Whelpley), and "Spring's Awakening" (Sanderson). The program was concluded with the "Oberon" overture by Weber. Maj. Guthrie saw services in the United States navy and in the Philippine constabulary and has a distinguished record for valiant service.

"TELL PEOPLE TRUTH," VORWAERTS DEMANDS

Germany Cannot Dictate Peace to "Hostile World," Paper Insists.

Special to The Washington Herald.

London, April 14.—In connection with comment on the latest declaration of the Russian government, the Berlin Vorwaerts, according to an Amsterdam dispatch to the Daily Chronicle, says:

"The German government must tell the people the whole truth, and that is, that one cannot dictate terms to a hostile world."

The Vorwaerts says on the subject of peace: "In the hands of the liberated Russian people now lies the decision regarding peace and war. It depends upon them whether in a reasonable time wisdom and justice will triumph over the loosened spirit of destruction or whether a long misery of war lies before us. All the world, therefore, will seek to read its fate in the new declaration."

"Matters between the central powers and Russia on the basis announced in the Russian program can be settled without a further drop of blood being shed. Neither Germany nor Austria-Hungary wishes to humble Russia, nor keep a bit of her territory. In Germany, as in Austria-Hungary, we wish for peace, and the provincial government's statement shows that the same feeling in Russia is very great."

"To meet that feeling is the duty of the German government, which must say that Count Czernin's proposal is its proposal, too, and that it has no intention to put forward at the suggested conference demands which only a defeated opponent could accept."
